

Joe Ingrassia

Joe Ingrassia contributed greatly to the success of athletic programs at the New York Athletic Club, where he served as President of the NYAC Athletic Programs, which, of course, included handball.

It was a position he occupied for approximately twenty years, retiring from it in 2014. Moreover he was instrumental in raising funds to help maintain a strong Inner City Handball Association.